

Scholarship Name: Lee Bock Young Women's Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship is offered in memory of Lee Bock, a tireless advocate for youth, social justice issues and friend to rural families. Lee was an inspired and inspirational writer who was passionate about young people and the literature that shaped their lives. She taught Language Arts in the Kimberly and Seymour School Districts, was a children's librarian at the Brown County Library and most recently, was a library media specialist for the Pulaski School District. She brought stories to life through her avocations as a puppeteer, clown and actor for several local puppet and theatre troupes.

Scholarship Type: General

Awards: Two $500 scholarships

Deadline: June 1st, 2012

Selection Criteria:

Applicant must be:

- A female graduating senior from one of the following high schools: Seymour, Pulaski, Bonduel, Ashwaubenon or Freedom.

Selection Procedure:

To be considered, applicants should send:

- A copy of your high school transcript
- A brief statement explaining your motivation for continuing your education and any obstacles that you've had to overcome in this pursuit.
- Your work and/or volunteer experience.
- At least one letter of recommendation from a teacher, administrator or both.
- A copy of the acceptance letter from the post-secondary institution to which you have applied.

This scholarship will be paid upon receiving a transcript of first semester grades from the post secondary school you are attending. A 2.5 GPA will be required.

Send completed materials to:

Mr. Bob Bock
N327 Elm Road
Pulaski, WI 54162