NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Please join us in wearing a turquoise ribbon
during the week of November 12th - 18th, to show your support of Rock Your Mocs Week &
Indigenous Peoples
Heritage Month.

Ribbons will be outside room 2303 in World Languages Pod
