Previous award winners are not eligible for consideration for a second scholarship.

The following factors shall be considered by the judges in deciding the relative merit of applicant and in arriving at final selection.

1. Moral Character – Commitment to the American way of life and its institutions, and applicant’s seriousness of purpose.
2. Academic excellence of the applicant.
3. Participation and accomplishment in American Legion affiliated activities.
4. Personality, leadership and participation in general extra-curricular activities.

GENERAL INFORMATION

There shall be a two (2) week grace period between March 1st and March 15th wherein no new application blanks will be accepted but where the applicant will be notified that certain materials are missing, not directly the applicant’s fault.

A Department committee consisting of a panel of five (5) judges, shall meet to select the finalists and announce the same to the Department Commander and Department Adjutant by the time of the Wisconsin American Legion Annual Spring Meeting in May, at which time the high school principal will be notified. Public announcement of winning candidates shall be left to the high school principal, but will be made no later than the commencement exercises of the winning graduate. Hopefully, an appropriate presentation will be arranged by the local high school utilizing an American Legion official in the presentation. The July issue of The Badger Legionnaire shall carry names of scholarship winners.

Simultaneously the judges shall pick three (3) alternates: First Alternate, Second Alternate and Third Alternate, who shall, in that order, be awarded a scholarship should either of the original winners default. Should experience indicate that picking winners is a task too cumbersome for non-remunerated judges; the Department Commander may appoint a competent screening committee who shall, in preliminary judgment, narrow the field to twenty-five (25) applicants.

JUDGES

JUDGING TEAM shall be comprised as follows: (This is the Scholarship Committee)

1. 2 Qualified Professional Educators.
2. Chairman of the Education and Scholarship Committee.
3. Past Department Commander who is immediate past DEC member or his delegate. Department Commander or his delegate.

Judges shall be selected, annually, by the State Adjutant in concert with the Department Commander and the Education and Scholarship Chairman. Their selection shall be ratified by the Department Executive Committee at the Fall Conference previous to serving as judges.

In all cases, judges reserve the right to check the accuracy and authenticity of any information submitted by an applicant including eligibility of scholarship itself; membership card numbers of self, mother, father, grandparent, or guardian; military or school record; marital status, especially “legally separated” of applicant and /or family.

SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

FINANCIAL – The financial aspects of the Wisconsin American Legion Scholarship Program shall be administered as follows:

- The Department Adjutant shall negotiate a voucher upon official notification by the college or university that the applicant has completed enrollment and has been accepted.
- Payment of total sum of scholarship shall be made to the REGISTRAR or other proper registration official at the accepting college or university, and applied toward tuition, fees, and other educational expenses.
- Should a scholarship recipient, at any time during the school year, fail to remain in school, all monies shall immediately be surrendered and/or recovered or transferred to the next eligible alternate.
- In the event the student discontinues scholastic pursuit, he/she automatically forfeits all further scholarship privileges.
- If the scholarship is not used after two (2) years, it reverts back to the scholarship fund. As is the case in all American Legion matters, these rules are subject to revision at any official meeting of the Department Executive Committee.
